

FEBRUARY 2021

As directed by Allegheny county Plum Community Center remains CLOSED at this time and is following all state guidelines.

We miss you at the Plum Community Center! We hope you are well and that we can be together soon. Allegheny County has directed a phased approach to reopening our center. We do not have a reopening date at this time but continue to check back here and our Facebook page for any future updates.

During this time updating your contact information is very important, please call us with any updated information such as change in address/phone number and provide us your email so you can keep informed. We will be sending mailings, emails, and making phone calls to stay in touch.

When we do reopen we will post the new rules and guidelines for our center here, be sure to check back for updated information.
